In the United States Court of Federal Claims

OFFICE OF SPECIAL MASTERS No. 09-179V

(Not to be published)

DECISION (ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS)

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, ¹ I issued a Decision on March 1, 2016. On March 29, 2016, Petitioners filed an Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, requesting a total payment of $47,085.22, representing attorneys' fees and costs of $45,379.52, and $1,705.70 of costs expended by Petitioners. On March 29, 2016, Respondent contacted a member of my staff by e-mail to confirm that Respondent has no objection to this request.

I find that this Petition was filed and pursued in good faith and with a reasonable basis. Thus, an award for fees and costs is appropriate at this time, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amounts seem reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the following attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1):

a lump sum of $45,379.52, in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioners and Petitioners' counsel, Edward Kraus, on account of services performed by counsel's law firm.

• a lump sum of $1,705.70, in the form of a check payable to Petitioners, which represents Petitioners' own litigation expenses in this case.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED

 $^{^{2}}$ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by filing a joint notice renouncing the right to seek review.
