DECISION¹

On January 13, 2011, Kristen Murdock (petitioner) filed a petition on behalf of her daughter, S.M., pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006). Petitioner alleged that S.M. suffered an encephalopathy and later died as a result of her receipt of Hepatitis A, Varicella, and Measles-Mumps-Rubella ("MMR") vaccines on January 21, 2009. On March 18, 2014, a decision was entered awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' stipulation.

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006) (Vaccine Act or the Act). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa.

On July 9, 2014, the parties filed a Stipulation of Fact Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs. According to the stipulation, respondent does not object to a total award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $35,067.89. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner states that she has advanced $861.00 in reimbursable costs in pursuit of her claim.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and respondent's counsel's lack of objection to petitioner's counsel's fee request, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for approval and payment of attorneys' fees and costs and of petitioner's costs.

Accordingly, an award should be made as follows:

in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and to Ronald C, Homer, of the Law Office of Conway, Homer & Chin-Caplan, P.C., in the amount of $35,067.89, and in the form of a check, payable solely to petitioner, in the amount of $861.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.³
