DECISION ON INTERIM ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision awarding damages to petitioner on March 7, 2014. Judgment entered on March 14, 2014. On September 3, 2014, petitioner filed a motion for attorney fees and costs. On September 22, 2014, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion, indicating that while she had objections to the fees and costs of the original attorneys of record, Mark Wohlberg and Marian Ming, the fees and costs requested by Mr. Shoemaker were not unreasonable. On September 24, 2014, petitioner's counsel filed a motion for interim attorney fees and costs for his firm, Shoemaker, Gentry & Knickelbein, while the conflict between respondent and Mr. Wohlberg and Ms. Ming on the amount of their fees and costs is resolved. Respondent does not object to this arrangement.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

In the motion for interim fees and costs, petitioner's counsel requests $6.55 on behalf of petitioner, N.A., and his guardian, Walli Afzali, which represents costs incurred during the prosecution of this case. Counsel also requests $81,079.15, which represents the fees and costs incurred by the firm of Shoemaker, Gentry & Knickelbein.

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total of $81,085.70³ as follows:

- A lump sum of $81,079.15 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner Walli Afzali and petitioner's counsel of record, Clifford Shoemaker, for petitioners' attorney fees and costs; and
- A lump sum of $6.55 in the form of a check payable to petitioner Walli Afzali for his personal litigation costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
