ATTORNEYS' FEES & COSTS DECISION¹

Gowen, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision awarding compensation and adopting the parties' stipulation filed on April 21, 2014. On June 3, 2014, petitioner filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, and on June 19, 2014, respondent filed an unopposed motion for extension of time to file her response to petitioner's motion. On July 14, 2014, the parties' filed a stipulation of fact concerning attorneys' fees and costs. The stipulation indicated that respondent does not object to the amended amount of $32,788.00 that petitioner is requesting, which includes petitioner's costs. Petitioner also filed on July 14, 2014, a statement pursuant to General Order #9 indicating that he incurred $764.25 for medical records and $2,000 for an expert retainer fee.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $32,788.00³ as follows:

- a lump sum of $30,023.75 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner, David Scuderi, and petitioner's counsel of record, Patricia Finn, Esq., for petitioner's attorney fees and costs, and
- a lump sum of $2,764.25 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, David Scuderi, for his personal litigation costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
