DECISION AWARDING INTERIM ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On February 19, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation of facts in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for interim attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In compliance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner's counsel noted in the motion that petitioner is not seeking interim out-of-pocket expenses at this time.

On February 18, 2014, petitioner filed a motion for interim attorneys' fees and costs. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain aspects of petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends his application for attorneys' fees and costs to $27,500.00. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $27,500.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Baseluos Law Firm in the amount of $27,500.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
