DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On June 26, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner asserts that he did not incur any costs in pursuit of his petition. Petitioner informally submitted his request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. Respondent does not object to petitioner's requested amount, $8,522.71. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $8,522.71, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Douglas & London, P.C. in the amount of $8,522.71.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
