DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On August 22, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation of facts in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

Petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs on August 19, 2014. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items in petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends her application to request $39,250.00 for attorneys' fees and costs and $38.00 for petitioner's costs. Respondent does not object to these amounts. The undersigned finds these amounts to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards:

- a. $39,250.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Conway, Homer & Chin-Caplan, P.C. in the amount of $39,250.00; and
- b. $38.00, representing reimbursement for petitioner's costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable to petitioner in the amount of $38.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
