DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On August 15, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner's counsel asserts that petitioner did not incur any costs in pursuit of her petition. Petitioner submitted her request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items in petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends her application for attorneys' fees and costs to $13,963.13. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $13,963.13, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Berenstein, Moore, Heffernan, Moeller & Johnson, L.L.P. in the amount of $13,963.13.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
