DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On February 24, 2014, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests $8,930.61 in attorneys' fees and costs, consisting of $7,177.50 in attorneys' fees and $753.11 in attorneys' costs. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner filed a statement asserting that he incurred no out-of-pocket costs in pursuit of his petition.

On February 25, 2014, respondent's counsel informed the undersigned's law clerk that respondent does not object to petitioner's request for attorneys' fees and costs. The undersigned finds petitioner's request to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $8,930.61, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and McDowell & Drew, Ltd. in the amount of $8,930.61.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
