ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS DECISION¹

On February 26, 2013, Kallie Ann Schmidt, mother of Haylee Marie Mallonee, deceased, filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program. On July 6, 2015, the parties filed a stipulation detailing an amount to be awarded to Petitioner. I subsequently issued a decision finding the parties' stipulation to be reasonable and granting Petitioner the award outlined by the stipulation.

On August 24, 2015, counsel for both parties filed another joint stipulation, this time in regards to attorney's fees and costs. The parties have stipulated that Petitioner's counsel should receive a lump sum of $33,500.00, in the form of a check payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. This amount represents a sum to which Respondent does not object. In addition, and in compliance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner has represented that she did incur any reimbursable costs in proceeding on this petition.

I approve the requested amount for attorney's fees and costs as reasonable. Accordingly, an award should be made in the form of a check in the amount of $33,500.00 payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Douglas Lee Burdette, Esq. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
