Respondent.

UNPUBLISHED RULING FINDING ENTITLEMENT¹

On October 17, 2013, Kimberly Bowman sought compensation for tendonitis in her left shoulder, resulting from the administration of the influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 20, 2010. Ms. Bowman seeks compensation pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

In the Rule 4 (c) report, respondent stated that Ms. Bowman’s claim is compensable under the Act. Respondent stated that the Division of Vaccine Injury Compensation, Department of Health and Human Services, has reviewed the facts of this case and have concluded that “petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) and that it was caused in fact by the flu vaccine she received on October 20, 2010.” Resp’t’s Rep., filed June 17, 2014, at 3. Respondent further states that “based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id. at 4.

Special masters may determine whether a petitioner is entitled to compensation based upon the record. A hearing is not required. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-13; Vaccine Rule 8(d). Based upon a review of the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner has established that she is entitled to compensation for her injuries.

Accordingly, Ms. Bowman is entitled to compensation. A status conference REMAINS set for Wednesday, July 9, 2014 at 2:30 P.M. Eastern Time to discuss the process for quantifying the amount of damages to which Ms. Bowman is entitled.

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Mary Holmes, at (202) 357-6353.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
