DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Roth, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a decision on February 9, 2015 that awarded compensation pursuant to the parties' joint stipulation. Petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs on June 5, 2015, and a supplemental motion on July 1, 2015. Respondent noted her objections to the amounts requested. On October 7, 2015, the Chief Special Master issued an Order adopting the hourly rates for attorneys associated with the Conway, Homer, & Chin-Caplan firm established by another special master in McCulloch v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., No. 09-293V, 2015 WL 5634323 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Sept. 1, 2015). She ordered petitioner to file a supplemental application for attorneys' fees and costs using the rates established in McCulloch.

On October 9, 2015, petitioner filed her supplemental motion for attorneys' fees and costs. In accordance with the rates awarded in McCulloch, petitioner requested a total of ¹ Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I intend to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, § 205, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (codified as amended at 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012)). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to delete medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will delete such material from public access.

$21,174.22, an amount that included attorneys' fees ($19,552.40), attorneys' costs ($286.25), and petitioner's costs ($1,335.57). On October 21, 2015, this case was reassigned to me. Respondent filed a response on October 23, 2015, indicating that while she disagreed with the analysis and findings in McCulloch, she declined to litigate issues that were addressed in that decision.

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate.

Accordingly, I hereby award the total $21,174.22³ in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner's counsel of record, Ronald Homer, for petitioner's attorney fees and costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
