received on October 17, 2012. See Petition at 1. On January 7, 2015, the undersigned entered a decision awarding compensation to petitioners based on a joint stipulation filed by the parties.

On March 2, 2015, the parties filed a stipulation concerning attorneys' fees and costs. The parties stipulate to a total award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $26,000.00. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioners' counsel states that petitioners did not personally incur any costs in pursuit of their claim.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioners' request and the lack of any objection by respondent, the undersigned GRANTS the request for approval and payment of attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, an award should be made as follows:

in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioners and to petitioners' attorney, Bryant L. Lewis, of the law firm Lewis & Johnson, in the amount of $26,000.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.³
