No. 14-279V

Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: January 22, 2015

Damages; decision based on proffer;
influenza (“flu”) vaccine; shoulder
injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”).

Ronald Craig Homer, Conway Homer et al., Boston, MA, for petitioner;
Alexis S. Babcock, U.S. Dep’t of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On April 10, 2014, Susie Avchen filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §300 a-10 through 34 (2006), alleging that she suffered a shoulder injury related to her receipt of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination administered on October 6, 2011. The undersigned ruled that Ms. Avchen is entitled to compensation under the Vaccine Act. Ruling, issued on July 17, 2014.

On January 20, 2015, respondent filed a Proffer on Award of Compensation, to which petitioner agrees. Based upon the record as a whole, the special master finds the proffer reasonable and that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer. Pursuant to the attached Proffer the court awards petitioner:

¹ The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

A lump sum payment of $85,000.00 which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Susie Avchen.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Mary Holmes, at (202) 357-6353.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
