MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On April 15, 2014, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) (“Vaccine Act”) alleging that he suffered from Guillain-Barré syndrome and an encephalopathy as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on January 14, 2013. On May 6, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties’ stipulation.

On October 6, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. Petitioner requests $21,955.70 in attorneys’ fees and $2,260.62 in costs for a total of $24,216.32. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner states that he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses in pursuing his claim. On October 17, 2016, respondent's counsel filed a response to petitioner's motion, explaining that she does not object to the amount requested by petitioner. Respondent further explains that her lack of objection "should not be construed as admission, concession, or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs." Res'p't's Resp. at 1.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total amount of $24,216.32 as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Maglio Christopher & Toale, PA.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
