No. 14-324V

Filed: March 19, 2015

Stipulation; influenza (“flu”) vaccine;
acute disseminated encephalomyelitis
(“ADEM”); death.

Jeffrey S. Pop, Jeffrey S. Pop & Associates, Beverly Hills, CA, for Petitioners; Jennifer Reynaud, United States Dep’t of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

On March 16, 2015, respondent filed a joint stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by Jeanette Parrish, as the daughter of Norma P. Parrish, aka Armandina Parrish (“Mrs. Parrish”), on April 21, 2014.² The petition seeks compensation for injuries and death allegedly related to Mrs. Parrish’s receipt of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury

¹ The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the party has 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

² On December 10, 2014, the Court substituted Theresa Parrish and Tracy Moreno, Co-Independent Administrators of Mrs. Parrish’s estate, as petitioners.

Table (the “Table”), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), and which Mrs. Parrish received on September 14, 2012, caused Mrs. Parrish to suffer acute disseminated encephalomyelitis (“ADEM”). Mrs. Parrish passed away on December 21, 2012. Petitioners further alleges that Mrs. Parrish’s death was the sequela of her alleged vaccine-related injury. Petitioners represent that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on behalf of Mrs. Parrish as a result of her alleged condition or her death.

Respondent denies that the flu vaccine caused Mrs. Parrish’s alleged ADEM, any other injury, or her death.

Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as “Appendix A.” The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum of $325,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioners, as Co-Independent Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 14-324V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.³

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Mary Holmes, at (202) 357-6360.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/ Christian J. Moran
Christian J. Moran
Special Master

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.

2. Mrs. Parrish received the flu vaccine on September 14, 2012.
3. The vaccine was administered within the United States.
4. Petitioners allege that as a result of receiving the flu vaccine, Mrs. Parrish suffered acute disseminated encephalomyelitis ("ADEM"). Mrs. Parrish passed away on December 21,

2012. Petitioners further allege that Mrs. Parrish's death was the sequela of her alleged vaccine-related injury.

5. Petitioners represent that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on behalf of Mrs. Parrish as a result of her alleged condition or her death.

6. Respondent denies that the flu vaccine caused Mrs. Parrish's alleged ADEM, any other injury, or her death.

7. Maintaining their above-stated positions, the parties nevertheless now agree that the issues between them shall be settled and that a decision should be entered awarding the compensation described in paragraph 8 of this Stipulation.

8. As soon as practicable after an entry of judgment reflecting a decision consistent with the terms of this Stipulation, and after petitioners have filed an election to receive compensation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-21(a)(1), the Secretary of Health and Human Services will issue the following vaccine compensation payment:

A lump sum of $325,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioners as Co-Independent Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

9. As soon as practicable after the entry of judgment on entitlement in this case, and after petitioners have filed both a proper and timely election to receive compensation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-21(a)(1), and an application, the parties will submit to further proceedings before the special master to award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in proceeding upon this petition.

12. Petitioners represent that they presently are duly authorized to serve as Co-Independent-Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish, under the laws of the State of Texas. No payments pursuant to this Stipulation shall be made until petitioners provide the Secretary with documentation establishing their appointment as Co-Independent-Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish. If petitioners are not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as Co-Independent-Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish, at the time a payment pursuant to this Stipulation is to be made, any such payment shall be paid to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as legal representative of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish, upon submission of written documentation of such appointment to the Secretary.

14. If the special master fails to issue a decision in complete conformity with the terms of this Stipulation or if the United States Court of Federal Claims fails to enter judgment in conformity with a decision that is in complete conformity with the terms of this Stipulation, then the parties' settlement and this Stipulation shall be voidable at the sole discretion of either party.

15. This Stipulation expresses a full and complete negotiated settlement of liability and damages claimed under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, as amended, except as otherwise noted in paragraph 9 above. There is absolutely no agreement on the part of the parties hereto to make any payment or do any act or thing other than is herein expressly stated and clearly agreed to. The parties further agree and understand that the award described in this Stipulation may reflect a compromise of the parties' respective positions as to liability and/or amount of damages.

16. This Stipulation shall not be construed as an admission by the United States or the Secretary of Health and Human Services that the flu vaccine caused Mrs. Parrish's alleged ADEM, any other injury, or her death.

17. All rights and obligations of petitioners in their capacity as the Co-Independent-Administrators of the Estate of Norma P. Parrish, a.k.a. Armandina Parrish, shall apply equally to petitioners' heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and/or assigns.
