On June 2, 2014, Leslie Fox ("petitioner") filed a petition pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006). Petitioner alleged that as a result of receiving an influenza vaccine on November 28, 2012, she suffered arm and shoulder injuries, including adhesive capsulitis. Petition ¶ 1. On August 25, 2014, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she conceded that petitioner was entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Report at 1. The undersigned issued a Ruling on Entitlement on

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006) (Vaccine Act or the Act). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa.

September 25, 2014. On that same day, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation. The undersigned's chambers confirmed with petitioner that she was in agreement with the proffered award and a Decision awarding compensation pursuant to the terms of the proffer was issued on September 26, 2014. See Decision on Damages, filed Sept. 26, 2014.

On October 17, 2014, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests a total award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $21,500.00. Respondent does not object. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represents that petitioner did not personally incur costs in pursuit of this claim. See General Order #9 Statement, filed Oct. 1, 2014.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of the parties' joint stipulation, the undersigned adopts the terms set forth therein as the decision of the court in awarding payment of attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, an award should be made as follows:

(1) in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and to petitioner's attorney, William E. Cochran, Jr., of Black McLaren Jones Ryland & Griffiee, in the amount of $21,500.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance herewith.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
