RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Vowell, Special Master:

On August 29, 2014, Morgan Kruger filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. The petition alleges that as a result of the administration of an influenza vaccination on January 10, 2013, Petitioner developed a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration the effects of which she suffered longer than six months. Petition at p. 1.

On November 19, 2014, Respondent filed a status report in this case conceding that Petitioner’s claim is appropriate for compensation under the Vaccine Act. (ECF No. 18, p. 1.) Specifically, Respondent stated that “Respondent’s position is that petitioner meets all of the criteria for Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (SIRVA) as set forth by the upcoming Vaccine Injury Table. Therefore it is recommended that compensation be awarded under the Vaccine Injury Compensation Program since the ² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2006).

preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that the injury identified in the petition is causally related to the vaccine.”³ (Id.)

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

³ Although the status report does not explicitly use the term “concede” or “concession,” Office of Special Masters Staff Attorney Daniel Horner confirmed orally during a status conference with the parties on November 21, 2014, that the status report was intended by Respondent’s counsel as a concession regarding entitlement in this case and that her client understood and intended that a ruling on entitlement would result.
