DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 30, 2014, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) (“Vaccine Act”) alleging that he suffered transverse myelitis as a result of his receipt of the influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 14, 2011. On June 22, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties’ stipulation.

On October 3, 2016, petitioner filed an unopposed motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. Petitioner requests $29,281.57 in attorneys’ fees and costs and $28.75 in personal costs for a total of $29,310.32.

¹ Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the special master’s action in this case, the special master intends to post this unpublished decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims’ website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). Vaccine Rule 18(b) states that all decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision is filed, petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact such information prior to the document’s disclosure. If the special master, upon review, agrees that the identified material fits within the banned categories listed above, the special master shall redact such material from public access.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the court awards:

- a. $29,281.57, representing attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and Rawls, McNelis and Mitchell, P.C. in the amount of $29,281.57; and
- b. $28.75, representing petitioner's costs. The award shall be in the form of a check for $28.75 made payable to petitioner.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
