through June 10, 2015.<sup>2</sup> The undersigned finds an award of interim fees appropriate and finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $4,574.48, representing reimbursement for interim attorneys' fees and costs accrued through the present date. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Nemes Rooney, P.C. for $4,574.48.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>3</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>2</sup> Respondent contends that the Vaccine Act does not confer special masters with authority to award interim fees and further contends that the withdrawal of counsel, by itself, does not provide sufficient grounds for an award of interim fees. Nevertheless, respondent elects not to raise her statutory objection under Section 15(e)(1) or an objection based on McKellar v. Sec'y of HHS, 101 Fed. Cl. 297, 302 (Fed. Cl. 2011), in response to this particular request for interim attorneys' fees and costs.

<sup>3</sup> Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by each party, either separately or jointly, filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review.
