MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On December 29, 2014, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) (“Vaccine Act”) alleging that he suffered Guillain-Barré syndrome as a result of his receipt of influenza vaccine on October 11, 2013. On January 4, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties’ stipulation.

On October 13, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. Petitioner requests $5,450.00 in attorneys’ fees and $5,533.46 in costs for a total request of $10,983.46. On October 20, 2016, respondent filed a response to petitioner’s motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. In her response, respondent explains that she does not object to the overall amount sought by petitioner. Resp. at 1. She further explains that her “lack of objection . . . should not be construed as an admission, concession, or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs.” Id.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner’s request and the lack of opposition, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner’s application for attorneys’ fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total amount of $10,983.46, as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Law Office of Glynn W. Gilcrease, Jr., PC.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>2</sup>
