DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 26, 2015, Jovan Ragia (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the “Vaccine Act”]. Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury caused by the tetanus, diphtheria, acellular pertussis (“Tdap”) vaccine he received on April 16, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 30, 2015, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement in favor of petitioner. On October 14, 2015, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation [“Proffer”] stating that petitioner should be awarded a lump sum in the amount of $109,579.18. Proffer at 2. This amount represents compensation for lost earnings

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

($8,326.22), pain and suffering ($100,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($1,252.96).

Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as set forth in the Proffer. Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards the following:

- A. A lump sum payment of $109,579.18, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Jovan Ragia. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

Proffer ¶III.

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

I. Items of Compensation

Respondent proffers that based on the evidence of record, petitioner is not entitled to an award for projected unreimbursable medical care expenses incurred from the date of judgment as provided under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(A). Petitioner agrees.

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, Jovan Ragia has suffered a past loss of earnings as a result of his vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that the Court should award Jovan Ragia a lump sum of $8,326.22 for his lost earnings as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A). Petitioner agrees.

Respondent proffers that the Court should award Jovan Ragia a lump sum of $100,000.00 for his actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

D. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents Jovan Ragia's expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses as a result of his vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that the Court should award Jovan Ragia a lump sum of $1,252.96 for past unreimbursable expenses as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(A). Petitioner agrees.

E. Medicaid Lien

Petitioner represents that there are no outstanding Medicaid liens related to his vaccine-related injury.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $109,579.18, representing compensation for lost earnings ($8,326.22), pain and suffering ($100,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($1,252.96), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Jovan Ragia.

III. Summary of Recommended Payment Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner:	$109,579.18
---------------------------------	---------------------
