DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On April 22, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. Petitioner alleges that as a result of a tetanus diphtheria [“Td”] vaccination on May 17, 2012, she suffered a neurological injury. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 14, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for brachial neuritis. On January 4, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation [“Proffer”] indicating petitioner should be awarded $102,000.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $102,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Dvora Ghitza. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
