DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On May 4, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10-34 (2012). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury as a result of her receipt of the influenza ("flu") vaccine on October 29, 2013. On November 24, 2015, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' stipulation.

On March 31, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $12,152.00 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $546.21, for a total amount of $12,698.21. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner has filed a signed statement indicating petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. On April 8, 2016, respondent filed a response to petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs, explaining that she does not object to the amount requested by petitioner, but that her response "should not be construed as an admission, concession, or waiver by respondent to matters raised by petitioner's request for attorneys' fees and costs." Resp. at 1 n.1.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of "reasonable attorneys' fees" and "other costs." 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs. The undersigned awards $12,698.21, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and Conway, Homer & Chin-Caplan, P.C. in the amount of $12,698.21.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
