DECISION¹

On May 6, 2015, Donald Harris ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006). Petitioner alleged that an influenza ("flu") vaccine administered on October 2, 2012 caused him to suffer from Guillain-Barré syndrome ("GBS"). On March 18, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner.

On March 21, 2016, Petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs ("Motion"). In his application, Petitioner requests compensation for $20,192.00 in attorneys' fees and $1,429.30 in costs; in total, Petitioner requests compensation in the amount of

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006) (Vaccine Act or the Act). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa.

$21,621.30. Motion at 1. According to Petitioner, Respondent “does not object to the overall amount of this request.” Id. (emphasis in original). Petitioner also represents that he has not personally incurred any fees or costs in pursuing his vaccine claim. Motion, Exhibit 2, at 1.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). The undersigned finds that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, the undersigned hereby awards the amount of $21,621.30, in the form of a check made payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner’s counsel, John Howie, Jr.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
