DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 3, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleged that she suffered shoulder injuries caused in fact by an influenza vaccine she received on October 7, 2014. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 10, 2015, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). On December 29, 2015, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $71,235.37. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $71,235.37 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Cara Criscione. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
