RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 7, 2015, Gloria Keyes ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleges that as a result of receiving an influenza ("flu") vaccine on November 24, 2014, she suffered tendonitis and disorders of bursae and tendons in her left shoulder. Pet. at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit ("SPU") of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 8, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Rule 4(c) Rep. at 1. In her report, respondent stated that she reviewed the petition, the medical records, and the undersigned's Ruling on Facts in this case, as well as the relevant medical literature regarding petitioner's alleged shoulder injury. Id. at 4. Based on that review, respondent concluded that petitioner's left shoulder injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), and that the injury is not due to factors unrelated to her November 24, 2014, flu vaccination. Id. Respondent further stated that petitioner met all statutory and jurisdictional requirements, including having suffered the condition for more than six months. Id. Thus, respondent agrees with petitioner that compensation for her left shoulder injury is appropriate under the terms of the Vaccine Act. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
