DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 20, 2015, Dennis Carlson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the “Vaccine Act”]. Petitioner alleged that he developed a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) in his right arm as a result of receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 3, 2014. Petition at 1. This case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 5, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. On November 24, 2015, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation [“Proffer”] stating petitioner should be awarded $145,225.36. Proffer at 3. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $145,225.36, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Dennis Carlson. This amount represents compensation (pain and suffering ($140,000.00) and lost earnings ($5,225.36)) for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On August 20, 2015, petitioner, Dennis Carlson, filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 to -34 (“Vaccine Act”), alleging that he suffered from a right shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving a seasonal influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 3, 2014. On November 4, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report stating that petitioner’s right arm injury is consistent with SIRVA and conceding that his SIRVA is compensable under the Vaccine Act. Accordingly, on November 5, 2015, Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation for SIRVA. For the purposes of this proffer, the term “vaccine-related” is as described in Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report filed on November 4, 2015.

I. Items of Compensation

A. Future Unreimbursable Expenses

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner will not require future care for his vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no future unreimbursable expenses under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1).

Petitioner agrees.

B. Lost Earnings

Although petitioner was retired from his full-time career at the time of his vaccine injury, he was working part-time at golf and ski resorts. The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner has suffered a past loss of earnings. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded lost earnings as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A). Respondent proffers that the appropriate award for petitioner's lost earnings is $5,225.36. Petitioner agrees.

C. Pain and Suffering

Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $140,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

D. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Petitioner did not provide evidence that he incurred unreimbursable expenses related to his vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded no past unreimbursable expenses. Petitioner agrees.

E. Medicaid Lien

Petitioner represents that there are no outstanding Medicaid liens against him.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:¹

A. A lump sum payment of $145,225.36, representing compensation for pain and suffering and lost earnings, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

III. Summary of Recommended Payment Following Judgment

A. Lump sum paid to petitioner: $145,225.36
