RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 4, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") resulting from the influenza vaccination she received on October 26, 2012. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 18, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent "opines that petitioner experienced a vaccine site reaction to the intradermal flu vaccine administered on October 26, 2012.”³ Id. at 3. Respondent agrees that “based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for entitlement.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Because the description of the injury conceded by respondent did not match exactly the injury alleged by petitioner, the OSM staff attorney contacted the parties by email communication to discuss the effect a ruling based on respondent’s description of petitioner’s injury would have on the issue of damages and to determine if either party objected to such a ruling. The parties had no objection and did not believe the issue of damages would be affected.
