DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 11, 2015, Pedro De Jesus ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleged that he suffered "shoulder injuries which were caused in fact" by the influenza vaccine he received on November 26, 2014. Petition at 1. On February 17, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on respondent's proffer to which petitioner agreed. (ECF No. 23).

On February 25, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 27). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $14,101.50 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $800.12 for a total amount of $14,901.62. Id. at ¶ 4. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represents that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id.

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

On March 1, 2016, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. (ECF No. 28). Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 1. Respondent adds, however, that she "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Additionally, she "asserts that a reasonable amount for fees and costs in the present case would fall between $12,000.00 to $14,000.00" but provides no basis or explanation for how she arrived at this proposed range. Id. at 3.

On March 11, 2016, petitioner filed a reply. (ECF No. 29). Petitioner argues that respondent "fails to specifically identify any deficiencies, unreasonableness, or billing issues" (id. at 3) and provides only "a self-serving estimation of what the Respondent believes the range for fees and costs in this type of case should be" (id. at 2). Petitioner includes a list of the attorneys' fees and costs awarded petitioner's counsel since 2014. Id. at 4-5.

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records submitted with petitioner's request. In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

Petitioner requests additional attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,020.00 for preparing the reply. Id. at 5 n.1. Petitioner has not, however, provided specific billing entries describing how this time was expended. Because petitioner's counsel has filed a near-identical reply in other SPU cases, the undersigned does not find the amount requested for the preparation of the reply brief to be reasonable in this case.<sup>3</sup> The undersigned reduces the requested hours to one hour and awards an additional $255.00 for the preparation of petitioner's reply brief. Thus, the total amount awarded for attorneys' fees and costs is $15,156.62.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $15,156.62<sup>4</sup> as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Maximillian Muller.

<sup>3</sup> In future cases counsel may be required to substantiate similar requests with detailed billing records.

<sup>4</sup> This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would
