RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On October 6, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the "Vaccine Act"]. Petitioner alleged that she received an influenza ("flu") vaccine on October 22, 2013, and thereafter suffered a left shoulder injury including tendinitis and adhesive capsulitis as a result of the flu vaccine. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 16, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report conceding that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that upon a review of the medical records and medical literature filed in this case, she has "concluded that a preponderance of the evidence establishes that the injury to petitioner's left shoulder was caused-in-fact by the administration of her October 22, 2013 flu vaccine." Id. at 4. As such, respondent concludes that petitioner's "left shoulder injury is compensable under the Act as a "caused-in-fact" shoulder injury related to vaccine administration. Id. at 4.
