UNPUBLISHED DECISION ON FEES AND COSTS¹

Petitioner, Julie Rich, filed an unopposed application for final attorneys' fees and costs in the above-captioned matter on April 12, 2017. Ms. Rich requests reimbursement for her attorney in the amount of $19,710.60. The Court awards this amount.

Ms. Rich filed a petition for compensation on November 5, 2015, alleging that she was injured by the influenza vaccine which she received on October 30, 2013. Petitioner received compensation based upon the parties' stipulation. Decision, 2017 WL 945907 (Feb. 13, 2017). Because petitioner received compensation, she is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

Petitioner seeks a total of $19,710.60, in attorneys' fees and costs for her counsel. Petitioner states that she did not personally incur any costs in pursuit of her claim pursuant to General Order No. 9. Respondent has no objection to the amount requested for attorneys' fees and costs.

After reviewing the request, the Court awards the following:

A lump sum of $19,710.60, in the form of a check made payable to petitioner and petitioner's attorney, Diana L. Stadelnikas, of Maglio Christopher and Toale, for attorneys' fees and other litigation costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

The Court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
