RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 29, 2015, Donna Soderman (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that as a result of receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 26, 2014, she suffered an injury to her right shoulder. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 25, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report in which she conceded that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent concluded that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), and that it was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine she received in her right arm on October 26, 2014. Id. at 5. Respondent further stated that no other causes for petitioner’s SIRVA were identified, and records show that she suffered the sequela of her injury for more than six months. Id. Thus, based on the medical evidence in the record, petitioner has met all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
