UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

After receiving compensation through the Vaccine Program, Roger Steck filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. Mr. Steck is awarded the full amount of his request, $82,121.16.

Mr. Steck alleged that various vaccinations caused him to suffer from Guillain Barré syndrome. The parties agreed to a stipulation resolving the amount of compensation. The stipulation was incorporated into a decision awarding Mr. Steck's compensation. Decision, issued June 27, 2017, 2017 WL 3205983. With the merits of Mr. Steck's case resolved, the parties addressed attorneys' fees and costs.

Mr. Steck filed an attorneys' fees and costs petition on August 15, 2017, requesting $77,591.50 in fees and $4,529.66 in costs. Mr. Steck did not incur any costs personally. Pet'r's Mot., Exhibit B, filed Aug. 15, 2017 (General Order No. 9 statement).

The Secretary filed a response representing that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Resp't's Resp., filed Aug. 15, 2017, at 2. The Secretary did not raise any specific objections and recommended that the Special Master "exercise his discretion" when determining a reasonable award. Id. at 3.

This matter is now ripe for adjudication.

Because Mr. Steck received compensation, he is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

Pursuant to the rationale established in Swintosky v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 12-403V, 2017 WL 5899239 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Nov. 6, 2017),² the Secretary has waived any objections to the amount of fees requested. Absent any objections, Mr. Steck's request for attorneys' fees and costs is GRANTED IN FULL:

A lump sum of $82,121.16 in the form of a check made payable to petitioner and petitioner's attorney, Steven M. Cohen.

These amounts represents reimbursement attorneys' fees and other litigation costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). In the absence of a motion for
