PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On November 21, 2016, respondent filed her Vaccine Rule 4(c) Report recommending that a preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that Douglas C. Riemer’s death on March 5, 2015 was causally related to the Varicella vaccination he received on February 4, 2015. The parties now address the amount of compensation to be awarded in this case.

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $450,000.00, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

As soon as practicable after an entry of judgment reflecting a decision consistent with the terms of this Proffer, and after petitioner has filed an election to receive compensation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-21(a)(1), the Secretary of Health and Human Services will issue the following vaccine compensation payment:

A lump sum of $450,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, as Legal Representative of the Estate of Douglas C. Riemer, representing compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

Petitioner represents that she presently is, or within 90 days of the date of judgment will become, duly authorized to serve as legal representative of Douglas C. Riemer's estate under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.¹

Accordingly, the parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $450,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner as Legal Representative of the Estate of Douglas C. Riemer. Petitioner agrees.

Respectfully submitted,

¹ No payments pursuant to this Proffer shall be made until petitioner provides the Secretary with documentation establishing her appointment as Legal Representative of Mr. Riemer's estate. If petitioner is not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as Legal Representative of the estate of Douglas C. Riemer at the time a payment pursuant to this Stipulation is to be made, any such payment shall be paid to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as Legal Representative of the estate of Douglas C.
