DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On March 8, 2016, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) alleging that his receipt of influenza vaccine on September 15, 2013 caused him to develop chronic inflammatory demyelinating polyneuropathy. On June 28, 2017, the undersigned issued a decision awarding damages to petitioner based on the parties' stipulation.

On August 16, 2017, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $16,680.09, attorneys' costs in the amount of $9,357.41, and personal costs in the amount of $3,000.00, for a total request of $29,037.50.

On August 30, 2017, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion explaining he is satisfied that this case meets the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1)(A)-(B). Resp. at 2. Respondent "respectfully recommends that the [undersigned] exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 3.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of "reasonable attorneys' fees" and "other costs." 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). It is not necessary for a petitioner to prevail in the case-in-chief in order to receive a fee award as long as petitioner brought the claim in "good faith and there was a reasonable basis for the claim." Id. The special master has "wide discretion in determining the reasonableness" of attorneys' fees and costs. Perreira v. Sec'y of HHS, 27 Fed. Cl. 29, 34 (1992), aff'd, 33 F.3d 1375 (Fed. Cir. 1994); see also Saxton ex rel. Saxton v. Sec'y of HHS, 3 F.3d 1517, 1519 (Fed. Cir. 1993) ("Vaccine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee applications.").

Based on her experience and review of the billing records submitted by petitioner, the undersigned finds petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs request reasonable. Therefore, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

Accordingly, the court awards:

- a. $26,037.50, representing attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and Marvin Firestone, MD, JD and Associates in the amount of 26,037.50; and
- b. $3,000.00, representing petitioner's costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable to petitioners for $3,000.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
