DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 16, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a right shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination she received on October 9, 2014. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 20, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On July 3, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $126,969.01. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award.

In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Compensation for Vaccine Injury-Related Items

On April 20, 2018, the Chief Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner is entitled to vaccine compensation for her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Respondent proffers based on the evidence in the record that petitioner should be awarded $126,969.01. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.<sup>1</sup>

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below, and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:<sup>2</sup>

A lump sum payment of $126,969.01, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Hilda Almanzar. This amount accounts for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner would be entitled.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.
