DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On April 25, 2016, Terry Bartee ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered injuries to his left shoulder after receiving the influenza ("flu") vaccine on December 11, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 7, 2016, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for his shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"). On January 6, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating petitioner should be awarded $71,450.92, representing $70,000.00 in compensation for actual and projected pain and suffering to which petitioner would be entitled and $1,450.92 to satisfy the State of California lien. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. at 1. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner payment as follows:

1. A lump sum payment of $70,000.00, the form of a check payable to petitioner; and
2. A lump sum of $1,450.92, which amount represents reimbursement of a Medicaid lien, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and

D. Medicaid Lien

Respondent proffers that Terry Bartee should be awarded funds to satisfy the State of California lien in the amount of $1,450.92, which represents full satisfaction of any right of subrogation, assignment, claim, lien, or cause of action the State of California may have against any individual as a result of any Medicaid payments the State of California has made to or on behalf of Terry Bartee from the date of his eligibility for benefits through the date of judgment in this case as a result of his vaccine-related injury suffered on or about December 11, 2014, under Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through two lump sum payments as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:¹

- A. a lump sum payment of $70,000.00, representing compensation for actual and projected pain and suffering in the form of a check payable to petitioner; and
- B. a lump sum payment of $1,450.92 representing compensation for satisfaction of the State of California Medicaid lien, payable jointly to petitioner and
