William E. Cochran, Jr., Black McLaren, et al., PC, Memphis, TN, for petitioner.

Traci Patton, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 27, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") following an influenza ("flu") vaccination on September 1, 2015. On November 15, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 21).

¹ Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On February 6, 2017, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 26). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $26,467.50 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $3,721.68 for a total amount of $30,189.18. Id. at 10. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner has filed a signed statement indicating petitioner incurred $6.85 in out-of-pocket expenses.

On February 24, 2017, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. (ECF No. 27). In response, respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 1. Respondent adds, however, that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Respondent "respectfully recommends that the Chief Special Master exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 3.

On November 4, 2016, the undersigned issued a reasoned decision in Henry v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 15-545V, 2016 WL 7189925 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Nov. 4, 2016), addressing hourly rates for the McLaren firm. The undersigned concluded that petitioner's counsel should be compensated at rates which are consistent with the rates requested in the instant application, with the exception of the hourly rates billed for attorney travel time and for work performed by paralegals in 2016 and 2017. The undersigned adopts the reasoning in the Henry decision for the instant analysis.

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records submitted with petitioner's request. In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours. However, consistent with Henry, supra, the undersigned reduces the award to reflect rate reductions for travel time and for 2016 and 2017 paralegal rates.

Mr. Cochran billed a total of 11.8 hours for travel at a rate of $355 per hour. (ECF No. 26-2 at 10-11). Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Cochran was noted to be working for a portion of the claimed hours, consistent with this Court's practice,³ the undersigned reduces the hourly rate for these hours by 50%. See, e.g., Hocraffer v. HHS, No. 99-533V, 2011 WL 3705153, at *24 (noting that “Special masters consistently award compensation for travel time at 50% of the billing rate in the Vaccine Program.”). The discount in fees for Mr. Cochran’s travel time results in a reduction of $2,094.50.

Additionally, there was 43.7 hours of paralegal time billed at a rate of $150 per hour, amounting to billing of $6,555. (ECF No. 26-2, p. 16) Reducing the hourly rate to $145 for all these hours reduces the total amount to $6,336.50, a reduction of $218.50.

Based on all of the above, the undersigned finds that petitioner’s counsel is entitled to reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as follows:

Requested attorneys’ fees:	$26,467.50
Less 50% rate reduction for 17 travel hours:	-$2,094.50
Less 2016 paralegal rate reduction:	-$218.50
Adjusted total:	$24,154.50
Requested costs:	+$3,721.68
Total Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Awarded:	$27,876.18
Requested Petitioner’s Litigation Expenses	+$6.85
Total Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Petitioner’s Expenses:	$27,883.03

Dec. 15, 2016) (“Upon further review of the billing records, I noted that Mr. Webb billed 8 hours for travel time on November 29, 2012 and 8 hours for travel time on November 30, 2012. While an attorney may bill for work performed while traveling, “special masters consistently award compensation for travel time at 50% of the billing rate in the Vaccine Program.”); *Rowden v. Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $27,883.03⁴ as follows:

- A lump sum of $27,876.18, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, William E. Cochran, Jr.; and
- A lump sum of $6.85, representing reimbursement for petitioner's costs, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵
