Ann Donohue Martin, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 23, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration ("SIRVA") caused by her influenza vaccine administered on October 10, 2013. On March 17, 2017, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 32.)

On May 12, 2017, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 36). Thereafter, on July 6, 2017, petitioner filed an amended application for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 39). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $15,401.50 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $1,209.21. (Id. at 1.) In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Thus, the total amount requested is $16,610.71.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On May 23, 2017, respondent filed a response to petitioner's initial application. (ECF No. 38.) Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 1. Respondent adds, however, that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Respondent "respectfully recommends that the Chief Special Master exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 3.³

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records submitted with petitioner's request. In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's amended application for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $16,610.71⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Ronald Craig Homer.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ On 7/10/2017, respondent's counsel indicated that respondent did not intend to file a response to petitioner's amended application for fees, but maintains the position set forth in his response to petitioner's initial application for fees. Informal Communicated dated 7/14/2017.

⁴ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).
