MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On August 1, 2016, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) ("Vaccine Act"), alleging that influenza vaccine administered on November 5, 2013 caused him to develop Parsonage-Turner syndrome. On May 30, 2017, the undersigned issued a decision dismissing the case.

On July 17, 2017, petitioner filed an unopposed motion for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests $14,104.20 in attorneys' fees and $1,045.83 in costs, for a total of $15,150.03. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner filed a signed statement saying he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Respondent noted that his lack of objection "should not be construed as an admission, concession, or waiver as to any of the matters raised by petitioner's request for attorneys' fees and costs, including but not limited to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs." Mot. at 2.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total amount of $15,150.03 as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Maglio Christopher and Toale, PA.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>2</sup>
