RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 19, 2016, Daniel McNeal (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered from a left shoulder injury as a result of receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 3, 2015. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 25, 2017, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states “petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (‘SIRVA’).” Id. at 3. Respondent further agrees that that no other causes for petitioner’s SIRVA were identified and that the statutory six month sequela requirement has been satisfied. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
