RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 20, 2016, Robert Stevenson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered an injury to his left shoulder as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on November 9, 2015. Petition at 1, 3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 17, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent believes that “petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (‘SIRVA’) and that it was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine he received on November 9, 2015.” Id. at 3-4. Respondent further agrees that no other causes for petitioner’s SIRVA were identified and that petitioner met the statutory requirements by suffering the condition for more than six months. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
