RULING ON ENTITLEMENT[1]

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 20, 2017, Susan Peterson ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,[2] (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine she received on October 27, 2015, she suffered Parsonage-Turner Syndrome. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 13, 2017, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that "petitioner's alleged injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ('SIRVA')" and that "no other cause for petitioner's condition has been identified." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that petitioner has met the statutory requirements by suffering the residual effects of her condition for more than six months and therefore has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

[1] Because this unpublished ruling contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
