DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 5, 2016, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10–34 (2012) alleging that the Tetanus-Diphtheria (“Tetanus”) vaccine she received on February 7, 2015 caused her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Pet. Preamble.

On November 30, 2017, the parties filed a stipulation in which they agreed to settle this case and described the settlement terms. Respondent agrees that petitioner suffered a SIRVA but denies that the Tetanus vaccine caused any other injury. Nonetheless, the parties agreed to resolve this matter informally. On November 20, 2017, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth in the stipulation. Judgment entered on December 4, 2017.

On March 23, 2018, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs, requesting attorneys' fees of $18,619.33, attorneys' costs of $580.94, and petitioner's personal costs of $15.50, for a total request of $19,215.77.

On March 28, 2018, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion explaining he is satisfied that this case meets the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1)(A)-(B). Resp. at 2. Respondent "respectfully recommends that the [undersigned] exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 3.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of "reasonable attorneys' fees" and "other costs." 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). The special master has "wide discretion in determining the reasonableness" of attorneys' fees and costs. Perreira v. Sec'y of HHS, 27 Fed. Cl. 29, 34 (1992), aff'd, 33 F.3d 1375 (Fed. Cir. 1994); see also Saxton ex rel. Saxton v. Sec'y of HHS, 3 F.3d 1517, 1519 (Fed. Cir. 1993) ("Vaccine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee applications.").

Based on her experience and review of the billing records submitted by petitioner, the undersigned finds petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs request reasonable. Therefore, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs. Accordingly, the court awards:

- a. $19,200.27, representing attorneys' fees and costs incurred by George Washington University Law School Vaccine Injury Clinic. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and George Washington University Law School Vaccine Injury Clinic in the amount of $19,200.27;
- b. $15.50, representing petitioner's personal costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable to petitioner in the amount of $15.50.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
