DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On October 12, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury caused by an influenza (“flu”) vaccination administered on October 16, 2013. Petition at Preamble (ECF No. 1). A Ruling on Entitlement issued on January 30, 2019, finding the petitioner was entitled to compensation for her shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). Ruling on Entitlement dated Jan. 30, 2019 (ECF No. 59).

¹ Because this Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims’ website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the Internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On August 5, 2020, the undersigned issued a ruling on damages, awarding petitioner $200,000.00 for actual pain and suffering and $1,200.00 per year, for petitioner's remaining life expectancy, for future pain and suffering. Ruling Awarding Damages dated August 5, 2020 (ECF No. 94). That ruling is incorporated herein as if fully set forth. The undersigned also ordered the parties to file a joint status report converting the undersigned's award of future pain and suffering to net present value. Id. at 9. On September 23, 2020, petitioner informed the Court that the parties' calculated the present value of petitioner's future pain and suffering and agree to an award of $30,438.95. Joint Status Report, filed Sept. 23, 2020 (ECF No. 97).

Therefore, based on the record as a whole, and pursuant to the undersigned's damages ruling, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as ordered below:

The undersigned awards a lump sum payment of $200,000.00 for actual pain and suffering and a lump sum of $30,438.95 for future pain and suffering, for a total of $230,438.95 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

These amounts represent compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a). The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
