DECISION GRANTING ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On November 18, 2016, Deborah B. Brown filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (the "Vaccine Program"), alleging that she suffered from multiple sclerosis as a result of her November 12, 2014, influenza ("flu") vaccine.² However, on June 21, 2017 the parties filed a joint stipulation of dismissal (ECF No. 23), and the special master to whom the case had been originally assigned issued an order concluding proceedings thereafter on June 21, 2017 (ECF No. 24).

² The Vaccine Program comprises Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3758, codified as amended at 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 through 34 (2012) ("Vaccine Act" or "the Act"). Individual section references hereafter will be to § 300aa of the Act (but will omit that statutory prefix).

Petitioner has now filed a motion requesting final attorney's fees and costs, dated July 12, 2017. See Motion for Attorney's Fees, dated July 12, 2017 (ECF No. 25) ("Fees App."). Petitioner requests reimbursement of attorney's fees and costs in the total amount of $9,839.32 (representing $9,343.00 in attorney's fees, plus $496.32 in costs). Id. at 1. However, proper calculations result in a total amount of $10,096.32.³ Respondent filed a document reacting to the fees request on July 20, 2017, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring to my discretion the determination of the amount to be awarded. ECF No. 28 at 2-3. Petitioner filed a reply on July 27, 2017 echoing the comments of Respondent to defer to my discretion (ECF No. 29).

Here, Petitioner requests $350 per hour for Ms. Meyers for work performed in 2016-2017. Pet. Ex. 7 at 2. Petitioner also requests rates of $145 per hour for work performed by paralegals. Id. These requested rates are within the appropriate hourly rate ranges established for attorneys with comparable experience and will therefore be awarded. See McCulloch v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 09-293V, 2015 WL 5634323 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Sept. 1, 2015). The hourly rates sought for present counsel are also consistent with my prior determinations and the decisions of other special masters. See Intini v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 15-304V, 2016 WL 8136089 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Dec. 21, 2016); Smith v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 16-1282V, 2017 WL 1247866 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Mar. 9, 2017). The hours expended on this matter also appear to be reasonable, and Respondent did not identify any entries as objectionable. The requested litigation costs also appear to be reasonable, and will be awarded.⁴

I hereby GRANT Petitioner's motion for attorney's fees and costs. Accordingly, an award of $10,096.32 should be made in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's

counsel, Nancy Routh Meyers, Esq. Payment of this amount represents all attorney's fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the Court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of this decision.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.
