RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On January 12, 2017, Julie Lynch (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation (“Petition”) under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (“Vaccine Act” or “Act”), as amended. Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered on October 1, 2015. Petition at 1. On July 27, 2017, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (“respondent”) filed a Rule 4(c) Report indicating that respondent does not contest entitlement in this matter, and the Chief Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding petitioner entitled to compensation the same day. ECF No. 17; ECF No. 18.

I. Items of Compensation

A. Lost Earnings

The parties agree that based upon the evidence of record, Julie Lynch has suffered past and future loss of earnings as a result of her vaccine-related injury. Therefore, respondent proffers that the Court should award Julie Lynch a lump sum of $242,946.96 for her past and future lost earnings as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A).

Petitioner agrees.

B. Pain and Suffering

Respondent proffers that Julie Lynch should be awarded $100,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Julie Lynch should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $342,946.96, representing compensation for lost earnings ($242,946.96) and pain and suffering ($100,000.00), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Julie Lynch.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Julie Lynch:	$ 342,946.96
