DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On February 2, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) after receiving a tetanus, diphtheria, acellular pertussis (“Tdap”) vaccine on August 18, 2015. Petition at preamble. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 10, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On October 26, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $110,000.00 for past and future pain and suffering, and $1,000.00 for past unreimbursed medical expenses. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $111,000.00 (representing $110,000.00 for past and future pain and suffering, and $1,000.00 for past unreimbursed medical expenses) in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Linda Russell. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Items of Compensation

The Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement on October 10, 2017. Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded compensation as follows: $110,000.00, for past and future pain and suffering, and $1,000.00 for past unreimbursed medical expenses. These amounts represent all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $111,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.
