RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On February 17, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered left shoulder injuries resulting from a Diphtheria, Tetanus, and Pertussis (“DTaP”) vaccination received on September 21, 2015. Pet. at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 14, 2017, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) and that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Resp.’s R. 4(c) Rept. at 1. Specifically, respondent “concluded that petitioner suffered a left-side shoulder injury and that the preponderance of the medical evidence indicated that the injury was causally related to the flu vaccination she received on September 21, 2015. Id. at 12. Respondent further agrees that no other causes for petitioner's injury were identified, that petitioner met the statutory requirements by suffering the condition for more than six months, and that petitioner has therefore satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Id.

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
